In Frédéric's work the curve is so sensual
it exudes.
This smooth curve hugs the raw of the material like a liana.
Caress which goes on to the inexpressible, the indefinite,
the promise.

Biography

Born in 1978, I have been cutting stone since 14 years, my medium par excellence.

After 5 years of restoring graded historical monuments, I headed towards sculpture and painting.

Thanks to several experiences with artists in France and Italy, I explored sculpture in the style of Italian futurists, before devoting myself to a more abstract work since 2006...
